

Shropshire Astronomical Society

Public Lectures

We organise a series of public lectures throughout the year at various venues, usually in Shrewsbury. These lectures are open to the public and are free entry. We endeavour to engage a wide variety of speakers from all aspects of astronomy and science. Details of our lectures will be added to the calendar as they are confirmed.